

PTOSIS - -TRAUMATIC

BY

Dr. O. I. Crawford

Case Report - November 1937

Mrs. W., age 47, syntonio biotype, housewife, has difficulty seeing at near, objects "seem to jump", headache over entire head, automobile accident fifteen years ago resulting in ptosis of left lid. N. V. A. O. D. 25/25, O.S. 25/66. P.R. $1/2\Delta$ eso., P.P. 4Δ exo.; adduction 30/8; abduction 9/3; P. R. F. 22/5; N. R. F. 24/15. Syntonized N/L $\alpha \lambda$ (alpha lambda) for twenty-one times over period of five months. Final Rx +.50 cyl. axis 90 O.U., +1.00 added for near. Patient comfortable, no "jump" in objects, and ptosis practically disappeared.